

THE WILMINGTON
LIBRARY

WILMINGTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Rodney Square Study Room

The Rodney Square Meeting Room is a study room. The room has a minimum capacity of one person and a maximum capacity of four.

Only walk-in requests are allowed and only on the day and the hour the user wishes to use the room. In other words, if the user wishes to use the Rodney Square study room at 2:00 pm, he or she must appear at the Reference Desk at 2:00 pm to request the room. Telephone reservation are not allowed.

Among the rules governing the use of the room are:

1. The time limit is two hours with no renewals for that day.
2. To sign up for the room, the user must go to the reference desk located on the first floor King Street side of the building. You will be asked by the librarian on duty to present a valid driver's license, State I.D. of Delaware library card. The librarian on duty will record your name, address and telephone number.
3. Except for bottled water, no food or beverage is allowed.
4. Please remember to remove your personal belongings before you leave.
5. Examples of appropriate room usage include: study, job interview, etc.
6. Social usage of the room is prohibited. Examples: hanging out, eating lunch, sleeping, etc.

Revised
Nov. 28, 2018